Living with diabetes? Tell us about it!

Be a part of the largest ever Australian study about what it's like to live with diabetes...

The Diabetes MILES Study: Management and Impact for Long-term Empowerment and Success

The Diabetes MILES Study aims to raise awareness of what it is like to live with diabetes in Australia and to identify ways in which health services and facilities can be improved for people with diabetes. We invite Australian adults with type 1 or type 2 diabetes to complete the Diabetes MILES survey online before 31st July.

Visit www.diabetesmiles.org.au to complete the Diabetes MILES survey online or join the mailing list to be notified when it goes live.

Complete the survey before 16th July and your survey will go into the draw to win one of five $100 gift vouchers.
